

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

In re
GARY E. RANDALL,
Lawyer (Bar No. 15020).

Supreme Court No.
ASSOCIATION'S PETITION
FOR INTERIM SUSPENSION
[ELC 7.2(a)(3)]

RECEIVED
SUPREME COURT
STATE OF WASHINGTON
2000 NOV 25 A 8:06
BY [Signature] R. CARPENTER
CLERK

Under Rule 7.2(a)(3) of the Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct (ELC), the Washington State Bar Association (Association) petitions this Court for an Order of Interim Suspension of Respondent Gary E. Randall pending cooperation with the disciplinary investigation.

This Petition is based on the Declaration of Senior Disciplinary Counsel Joanne S. Abelson (Abelson Declaration), filed with this Petition.

STATEMENT OF GROUNDS/ARGUMENT

As set forth in the Abelson Declaration, Respondent Gary E. Randall failed to respond to the Association's requests that he respond to a grievance filed against him, and failed to appear at a non-cooperation deposition to which he was subpoenaed.

Respondent also failed to produce his files and records in the underlying matter despite being served with a subpoena duces tecum issued by Disciplinary Counsel under ELC 5.3(f)(1). The subpoena was issued due to Respondent's failure to respond to the grievance.

It is necessary to obtain Respondent's responses and records so the Association can determine if Respondent violated the Rules of Professional Conduct (RPC). By refusing to comply with the Association's requests for information, Respondent has impeded and delayed the disciplinary process. Accordingly, the Association asks this Court to order Respondent's immediate interim suspension pending compliance with the Association's investigation.

STANDARD

Under ELC 7.2(a)(3), a respondent lawyer may be immediately suspended from the practice of law when the lawyer fails without good cause to comply with a request from the Association for information or documents or fails without good cause to comply with a subpoena.<sup>1</sup> Respondent's failure to comply with the Association's requests for response and its subpoena meets this standard.

Failure to Cooperate with Investigation. When any lawyer fails without good cause to comply with a request under rule 5.3(f) for information or documents, or with a subpoena issued under rule 5.3(f), or fails to comply with disability proceedings as specified in rule 8.2(d), disciplinary counsel may petition the Court for an order suspending the lawyer pending compliance with the request or subpoena. If the lawyer complies with the request or subpoena, the lawyer may petition the Court to terminate the suspension on terms the Court deems appropriate.

EFFECT OF RESPONDENT'S FAILURE TO COOPERATE

The lawyer discipline system provides "protection of the public and preservation of confidence in the legal system." In re Disciplinary Proceeding Against McMurray, 99 Wn.2d 920, 930, 655 P.2d 1352 (1983). Given the limited resources available to investigate allegations of lawyer misconduct, "such investigations depend upon the cooperation of attorneys." Id. at 931.

"Compliance with these rules is vital." In re Disciplinary Proceeding Against Clark, 99 Wn.2d 702, 707, 663 P.2d 1339 (1983). Because Respondent has not responded to the grievance, appeared for a deposition or provided the requested records, the Association has not been able to determine whether he violated the RPC as alleged by the grievant. The Association's effective and timely investigation of the grievance and protection of the public has been impeded and delayed.

CONCLUSION

Respondent's failure to cooperate with a disciplinary investigation is an ongoing violation of ELC 5.3. Accordingly, the Association asks the Court to issue an order to show cause under ELC 7.2(b)(2) requiring Respondent to appear before the Court on such date as the Chief Justice may set, and show cause why this petition for interim suspension should not be granted.

DATED THIS 24th day of November, 2008.

Respectfully submitted,

WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

Supreme Court No.

DECLARATION OF SENIOR
DISCIPLINARY COUNSEL
JOANNE S. ABELSON

I, Joanne S. Abelson, declare and state:

1. I am the disciplinary counsel assigned to the disciplinary proceedings against Respondent Gary E. Randall.
2. On September 18, 2008, the Association received a grievance from Respondent's client, Sandra Bauer, alleging that Respondent neglected her case. See Appendix A.
3. On September 19, 2008, disciplinary counsel requested that Respondent submit a response to the grievance within two weeks. See Appendix B.
4. Respondent did not submit a response to the grievance.
5. On October 23, 2008, disciplinary counsel sent Respondent a certified "10-day" letter requesting that Respondent submit a response to the grievance by November 5, 2008. See Appendix C.
6. Respondent did not submit a response to the grievance.
7. On November 7, 2008, disciplinary counsel issued a subpoena duces tecum requiring that Respondent appear for a deposition at 10:00 a.m. on November 20, 2008 and bring with him his complete client file and all financial records pertaining to the grievant. See Appendix D.

8. Respondent was served with the subpoena duces tecum on November 10, 2008. See Appendix E.

9. Respondent did not appear for the deposition and did not contact disciplinary counsel to make other arrangements. See Appendix F.

10. Respondent still has not responded to the Bauer grievance.

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

Gary Randall has yet to complete the easement on the property. I have called him many many times - every two weeks to 4 weeks to tell him to finish this lawsuit. The easement is not completed or filed. The Cooks have NOT planted adequate screening between the two properties. Their property is now up for sale without this work done.

I paid Gary many thousands to obtain this agreement. The lack of screening will negatively impact the value of our property. Every time I talk to Gary, he agrees to complete the job & then does nothing. My last conversation about two weeks ago, he told me to be patient. I pointed out to him that in Feb. it will be two years. He again agreed to write the letter to opposing Council right away & send me a copy. Again - nothing. I am including 1) the settlement agreement. 2) letter I wrote in May telling

Dear Gary:

The lawsuit you litigated on our behalf was resolved 15 months ago with two outstanding issues. One was to finalize an easement and the other was for the Cooks to replant trees between the two properties adequate to provide privacy screening.

I have called regularly from March 2007 to April of 2008, asking you to finish the easement; and I called several times between last fall and April 2008 to tell you that the Cooks have planted only two trees around 150 feet of mutual property line, which is clearly inadequate screening. You have said that you would contact and follow up with the Cooks' attorney but you have not.

You have said that you had called and left messages that were not answered. I asked to you send a letter to the Cook's attorney with return receipt requested and you agreed to do that with a copy to me; and you have not done that either.

Fifteen months is way too long to finish this up. This needs, and should be able, to be completed soon.

Please both call me at 425/844-2748 and provide a written outline of how and when you are going to complete this case. We fear that, if you continue to fail to perform your duty, we will have to retain new counsel to do it, and charge you for the extra money we would be required to pay to complete what we have already paid you for.

Additionally, we feel that the burden your dereliction has put on us would merit a complaint to the Washington State Bar Association. We of course would prefer to avoid taking both those measures and to have you finish the job you undertook for us; so please respond to this letter within two weeks.

Sincerely yours

Sandra Bauer

Grievance filed by Sandra Bauer

Dear Mr. Randall:

We asked you to provide a written response to the above referenced grievance. To the best of our knowledge, your response, which is required by Rule 5.3(e) of the Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct (ELC), has not been received.

Under ELC 5.3(e), you must file a written response to the allegations of this grievance within ten days after service of this letter, i.e., on or before November 5, 2008. If we do not receive your response within the ten-day period, we will subpoena you for a deposition. If we must serve a subpoena, you will be liable for the costs of the deposition, including service of process, and attorney fees of $500. ELC 5.3(f)(2). You should be aware that failing to respond is, in itself, grounds for discipline and may subject you to interim suspension under ELC 7.2(a)(3).

Dear Mr. Randall:

Enclosed is a subpoena duces tecum compelling your attendance at a deposition in accordance with Rules 5.5 and 5.3(f) of the Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct (ELC). The subpoena has been issued because of your failure or refusal to cooperate with this investigation. As you already have been informed, you will be liable for the costs associated with the deposition, including service of the subpoena, court reporter charges, and a $500 attorney fee.

We wish to avoid any further delay in the completion of this investigation. Accordingly, we will not cancel or continue the deposition unless disciplinary counsel so confirms in writing. Absent a written confirmation of cancellation or continuance, your appearance at the deposition in our offices on Thursday, November 20, 2008 at 10:00 a.m. is mandatory. If you fail to appear, we may treat your failure to appear as a violation of disciplinary rules, we may refer this grievance to Review Committee with a recommendation of a public disciplinary hearing without your response, and we may petition the Washington Supreme Court for your immediate interim suspension from the practice of law under ELC 7.2(a)(3).

We wish to avoid any further delay in the completion of this investigation. Accordingly, we will not cancel or continue the deposition unless disciplinary counsel so confirms in writing. Absent a written confirmation of cancellation or continuance, your appearance at the deposition in our offices on Thursday, November 20, 2008 at 10:00 a.m. is mandatory. If you fail to appear, we may treat your failure to appear as a violation of disciplinary rules, we may refer this grievance to Review Committee with a recommendation of a public disciplinary hearing without your response, and we may petition the Washington Supreme Court for your immediate interim suspension from the practice of law under ELC 7.2(a)(3).

Sincerely,
